Cub Scouts Hold Program

There's still room for more Cub Scouts. That's the good word from Fonzi Powell, Chairman of Pack 546. On Monday, Feb. 21 the Cubs met at Memorial Methodist Church to organize into three dens and to reactivate the Pack. Parents, den leaders, and additional help is needed from male adults to form dens as necessary to an active pack organization, says Fonzi. Inasmuch as Fonzi himself is troop leader of Troop 546, he can't fill the position of Cub Master himself though. In addition, an assistant cubmaster is needed, webelos leader and assistant webelos leader.

Boy Scouts of Troop 546 presented an Eagle Scout program in Jan. 31, including the presentation of the Eagle and Bronze Palm awards.

Adults involved in the program include Troy Holland, organizational representative, Travis A. Poole, Jr., treasurer and advancement chairman; Fonzi Powell, the acting cubmaster, Floyd L. Flint, Jr., Edward A. Akers, Howard E. Ferguson, Lannie Culpepper, Dr. A. A. Fratrik, Eugene W. Peyton and Bill Poole.

Den leaders include Mrs. Barbara W. Caldwell, Mrs. Eva Mae Akers and Mrs. Margaret A. Peyton. Assistant den leaders include Mrs. Linda A. Stewart, Mrs. Nelwyn Smith and Mrs. Riley.

Cub Scouts of Pack 546, den leaders and assistant den leaders Dickey, gathered around for the photographer following a Pack organization meeting at Memorial United Methodist Church. More adult help is needed to get the Pack into full action, says acting cubmaster, Floyd Flint, Jr.

STONEWALL

And he said unto Jesus, Lord remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. Luke 23:42

Mrs. Nellie Kraise spent last week end with her sister, Mrs. Ed Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harris took her back to Lynchburg Sunday.

Mrs. James Jordon visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caldwell Saturday.

The children of Mrs. John Rawls gave her a surprise birthday party Sunday. All came and brought a basket lunch. Many more happy days were wished for her.

STONEWALL HD CLUB

The regular monthly meeting of the Stonewall Home Demonstration Club was held with one new hostess in the community, Mrs. Helen Routan (John). So glad to welcome her in our community. We hope she will feel at home with us and we love her dearly.

There were 10 regular members and one visitor, Murdice Harding, at the meeting. So glad to have Murdice with us.

Our new President, Inez Foster presided over the meeting and Sara Rouse had our devotions.

It was reported that we should take up Pennies For Friendship each month instead of once a year and turn it all in by the 1st of March of each year.

There were 13 meetings of interest to the club coming up in the near future. (1) A leader training meeting to be held at the Southern States Co-op. Bldg. at Crewe, Va. on "Fun With Foreign Foods", February 23rd. (2) Sewing Appointment at 9 a.m. There will be a luncheon after the meeting. (2) There will be an Extension interest meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 29th at 1 p.m. at the Extension office on making Lingerie. (3) Our district III meeting will be held on Thurs., April 20th at the John's Auditorium at Hampton-Sydney College. This is all of the information available at the present time on this meeting.

There are two scholarships available at the present time (1) is the "Mrs. Coy Roop's Scholarship and (2) Mrs. Maude Wallace Scholarship for prospects for the sales of the Home Demonstration Cookbook. We are working more information concerning these may contact Mrs. Rebecca Johnson, Home Demonstration Agent.

We discussed choosing colors for our individual club. Inez Foster asked that each member submit two colors at our next meeting. She also appointed a committee of Gloria Gunter and Nellie Kraise to be in charge of these when brought in and the club would vote them in at a later date.

Since there was no further business the meeting was dismissed with our Homemakers Creed and Prayer, after which Susie Krantz presented our demonstration on "Sewing with Knit Fabrics."

Our March meeting will beat the home of Hallie Roope unless further notified and the demonstration will be on "Fun With Foreign Foods."

We were then served delicious refreshments by our hostess.

Respectfully submitted,
Hallie Roope, Secretary of the Stonewall H. D. Club

$150 Waits For Winner Of Club Scholarship

There's $150 waiting for a graduate of Appomattox County High School, a graduating senior or a student who qualifies for a state Technical School, as the winner of a scholarship offered by the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club.

The club, aware of the need of financial support and interested in attending nursing school, technical school or business college. A brief essay should be submitted to the Scholarship Committee headed by Mrs. Robert Seward and Mrs. Ronald Lewis.

Deadline for applications is April 1, 1972. Interested seniors or others may contact either Mrs. Seward or Mrs. Lewis for more details.

Miss Kathy Sears

BETTY CROCKER HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW FOR 1972

Miss Kathy Sears has been named Appomattox Co. High School's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for 1972. She was chosen on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude examination taken by senior girls on Dec. 7, and will receive a specially designed award charm from General Mills, sponsor of the annual educational program. Additionally, she is now eligible for state and national honors.

The State Homemaker of Tomorrow, to be selected from all school winners in the state in judging which will center on performance in the Dec. 7 test, will receive a $1,500 college scholarship. Her school will receive a complete set of Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. A scholarship of $500 will go to the second-ranking girl in the state.

This April, the 51 Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow representing every state and the District of Columbia -- each accompanied by a faculty adviser -- will begin an expense-paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D. C. Personal observation and interviews during the tour, added to the earlier state-level judging results, will culminate in the announcement of the 1972 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow at the conclusion of the tour. Her scholarship will be increased to $5,000 with those of three runners-up raised to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000.

In addition to the awards for Homemakers of Tomorrow, a special $1,000 Nutrition Scholarship has been added to the Betty Crocker Search program this year. To earn this award, a girl must be planning a college major in nutrition or a related field; rank among the highest in her state in the overall Search examination and achieve the top scores from those meeting the first two criteria, on the test's nutrition questions.

During the 16 years since the program's inception, enrollment has totaled over eight and one-quarter million, and with this year's grants, scholarship awards will reach almost $2 million.

Kathy is the daughter and Mrs. Robert [illegible] Appomattox, Virginia.

Not A Birthday Cake

It's not a recipe for a birthday cake -- or even for breakfast pancakes. What Phillip Goode (left) and Jesse Morton, Jr. (right) are reading is a recipe to get rid of rats. The ingredients include ordinary kitchen staples: corn meal, rolled oats, powdered sugar and vegetable or mineral oil PLUS an all-important poison, pival, available in 25% packets at Talley's, Pamplin, or Coleman & Sons and Appomattox Farmers' Supply, Appomattox. Phillip and Jesse, both juniors at ACHS and FFA Chapter members, have helped package up the rat poison. Now they are busy distributing it to area Farmers to urge every farmer and householder to set out poison in a concerted effort to rid the county of rats.

Scouts Use Cookie Funds For Projects

Good salesmanship has always been an important facet of American financial life. So the next time you are sold a box of cookies by an eager, greenclad youngster, take a moment to reflect. Girl Scouts will begin taking orders for cookies February 26.

That Girl Scout, as a part of the largest voluntary sales force inthe country, is not in the fund-raising business for Girls Scouts of the U.S.A. What she is doing is selling a valuable means to a necessary end. She is earning some of the funds for her own troop's activities which may encompass a wide range of projects. At the same time, she is learning intelligent money management, its use, and the whys of budget. And, one is also helping her own Council balance its budget.

The cookies committee chairman for the Virginia Skyline Girl Scout Council, Mrs. David Pinkerton, Lynchburg, has announced that this year's Girl Scout Cookie Sale will get underway on February 26 and will continue through March 11. Although the Council is supported by 27 United Funds/Chests in the 36 1/3 counties that the Council serves and Girl Scout Fund Raising Campaigns are held in the areas where there are no United Funds Chests, Mrs. Pinkerton stresses that the funds from the Cookie Sale are vitally needed to support the Council's budget.

Primarily, the Cookie Money is used for the Girl Scout Camp Program in the Council. Generally, about 15 Day Camps operate throughout the summer, as well as the Established Camp Kiwanianna, near Shawsville, Va. Troop Camping is enjoyed year round on campsites owned by the Council. These campsites are located near Charlottesville, Danville, Roanoke, Lynchburg, Buchanan, and Covington.

The upkeep, maintenance, and staffing of these camps is very costly. The Cookie Sale helps to finance a good part of this expense. But the most important factor is that all girls, regardless of color or creed, are given the opportunity to enjoy a Camp Program that not only helps them learn to develop outdoor skills but teaches them to become active, informed citizens to help improve the quality of the nation's environment today.

Girl Scouting helps today's girls assume leadership roles and execute community service with increasing maturity and good judgment.

Girl Scouting enables girls from different cultural, ethnic and economic backgrounds to share their heritage.

Girl Scouting help girls become aware of the world around them and the role they play in it.

Girl Scouting is fun!

The Cookie Sale helps Girl Scouting provide all of this to some 18,000 girls in the Virginia Skyline Girl Scout Council.

The Council's goal this year is to sell 330,000 packages of cookies.
